

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

We must protect ourselves from the major corporations trying to take over all means of mass communication. Such things can create mass censorship of all information, which we simply cannot tolerate.
